

MD ANDERSON ADMINISTRATIVE FELLOWSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Program Description

The MD Anderson Administrative Fellowship offers an opportunity to learn about the organizational structure, philosophy, values, and mission of the University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center.

The 18-month fellowship is an operations-based program that focuses on nurturing independence and learning through measurement and evaluation of progress toward educational objectives. The primary intent of the program is to offer early careerists an opportunity to translate academic theory into practice and further develop their leadership styles in a large, academic specialty non-profit hospital.

The MD Anderson Cancer Center Administrative Fellowship provides:

- Knowledge of organizational dynamics gained from working with senior leadership throughout the Institution
- An opportunity for inexperienced managers to obtain an applied foundation in financial management, ambulatory care management, research administration, human resources administration, facility, and strategic planning
- An understanding of the common values shared by all health care professionals at MD Anderson
- Competitive advantage in key healthcare competencies needed by tomorrow's executives.

The Office of the President administers the program with support from the MD Anderson Leadership Institute, and strong connections to the clinical operations, finance, and research enterprise.

Program Objectives:

- Translate and apply financial, economic, market and performance information and models to expand, improve and optimize organizational performance.
- Demonstrate knowledge of the healthcare system and environment in which health services are provided
- Effectively manage relationships, influence individuals and groups, and communicate to take action in the pursuit of organizational goals.
- Develop and define a vision, take initiative, provide direction, manage change, and participate in the planning, development, communication and monitoring required to establish and achieve organizational goals.
